

BYLAWS

OF THE

BONNEVILLE COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY

PREAMBLE

1. The Bonneville County Republican Party is a voluntary organization, independent of the government, made up of citizens exercising their freedom of association while seeking to advance shared values. The Bonneville County Republican Central Committee (“BCRCC”) makes up part of the Idaho State Republican Party and participates in the drafting and adoption of the Idaho Republican Platform.
2. The Bonneville County Republican Party exists for the express purpose of advancing the principles of the Republican platform. The participants in the Bonneville Republican party are committed to making our county, our state, and our nation better through the promotion of republican values.
3. The Bonneville County Republican Party works with voters who choose to affiliate with the organization in order to promote our principles, and to recruit, nominate, and elect candidates for government office that will do the same. The BCRCC welcomes all participants who share belief in Republican platform principles and a desire to advance those principles.

ARTICLE I - ORGANIZATION

1. Precinct Officer

- A. A Precinct Committee Officer (PCO) is a Republican Party official who is elected in each precinct of Bonneville County.
- B. Each PCO serves for a term of two years and is elected directly by the republican-affiliated voters in his or her precinct during primary elections.

- C. Any PCO who is absent from ten consecutive BCRCC meetings or who changes his or her residence such that they do not live at an address within the precinct in which they were elected, shall vacate his or her PCO seat by way of resignation.
- D. To serve as a PCO, a person must have been registered as a Republican for at least one consecutive year immediately prior to such service.
- E. A PCO may appoint one or more Assistant Precinct Officers (APCO) to act as the PCO's agent in fulfilling the PCO's duties, including but not limited to voting in the PCO's behalf. Notwithstanding,
 - i. An APCO must live within the precinct to which he or she is appointed.
 - ii. Appointments of APCOs must be submitted in writing to the BCRCC Secretary and announced in a BCRCC meeting.
 - iii. To serve as an APCO, a person must have been registered as a Republican for at least one consecutive year immediately prior to such service.
 - iv. If more than one APCO is appointed, the PCO must establish an order of precedence for the APCOs' authority and communicate that order in writing to the Executive Committee.
 - v. When a PCO resigns or forfeits his or her position, all APCOs acting as said PCO's agent pursuant to this part E are released.
- F. The BCRCC may nominate and appoint an APCO if and only if (1) the PCO has failed to appoint an APCO, (2) the PCO has been given 7 days' notice and (3) the PCO does not offer reasonable objection.
