They will be polled to determine if they are willing and able to attend the convention. In the event one or more of them is unable to serve as a delegate, that delegate position(s) and alternate(s) will be filled per step 4 of section 3.

Should a vacancy of an Idaho State Legislator from District 11 occur, the LD11 Chair shall call a meeting for the purpose of selecting three (3) candidates to be submitted to the Governor according to Idaho Code 59-904A and State Republican Party Rules.

Adopted July 8, 2024

- a. Pursuant to Roberts Rules of Order, all nominations must come from an LD PC. A Nominating Committee will be formed consisting only of PC's. The Nominating Committee will submit a report of nominations to the remaining PC's for approval. The report will contain the names of all those individuals who have expressed interest in the position prior to the meeting. The LD11 Chair will open the floor for any additional names that are not on the report. The Credentials Committee, if one has been appointed, will then present their report, certifying that the nominees do qualify for the office by residency, age, and that they are a registered Republican voter. This committee also certifies that each precinct chair is valid and can vote.
- b. Should the LD Chair hold two district voting positions, only one (1) vote is allowed.
- c. The PC's will be seated in a special section of the room. If a PC is a candidate, they must follow the rules as other candidates during the interview process but are allowed to be seated and vote once the interview process is completed.
- d. Each candidate may have an endorsement speech to be given by a person of the candidates' choice. This person may be anyone and does not have to be a PC. Endorsement speeches will be one (1) minute long if there are more than ten (10) candidates and two (2) minutes long if there are fewer than ten (10).
- e. Each candidate will remain outside the public meeting room while endorsement speeches and candidate speeches are being given, for anyone other than themselves.
- f. At the conclusion of the endorsement speech, each candidate will have five (5) minutes to make a speech regardless of the number of candidates.
- g. At the conclusion of the candidate's speech, each candidate will have the opportunity to respond to two (2) questions from PC's, with up to one (1) minute to answer each question.
- h. Following the endorsement speeches and candidate speeches, all candidates will then enter the meeting room for a 'question and answer' period. Q & A should last 15 to 30 minutes depending on the number of candidates and the number of questions. Time permitting, LD Chair may extend this time at their discretion. Each candidate will have up to one (1) minute to respond to each question. Only PC's will be allowed to ask questions. Following the Q & A period, the voting will take place via secret ballot.
- i. A vote will then be taken by the PC's, and each PC will vote once.
 1. The candidate with the highest number of votes will be considered the top choice to recommend to the governor and their name shall be listed specifically as, "Top Choice."
 2. Additionally, the next candidate with the most votes will be the 2nd choice for recommendation and their name shall be listed specifically as, "Second Choice."
 3. And finally, the next candidate with the most votes will be the 3rd and final recommendation on the list and shall be listed as, "Third Choice."
 4. It is important to keep a record of the 4th choice, if any, in case of a disqualification or rejection from the governor.

- j. In the event of a tie vote, a re-vote will be taken. If a tie still exists, the LD11 Chair may cast the tiebreaker vote unless he/she is also a PC. In such case the LD11 Vice-Chair may cast the tiebreaker vote unless he/she is a PC. If such a situation should occur, then the committee may proceed with whatever means of breaking the tie that is agreed to by the majority of the committee.
- k. There will be a committee of three people to tabulate results, with at least one person being a member of the Legislative District Executive Board (Chairman, Vice-Chairman or Secretary). No PC from the LD of the candidate(s) shall serve on the tabulating committee.
- l. One person, who is not a PC, shall serve as the timekeeper during the candidate speeches and the Q & A period. They will be responsible for giving signals to the candidates indicating time allowances.
- m. In the event a nominee for consideration by the Governor is disqualified/rejected or unable to fulfill the appointment, the LD will reconvene to send a new candidate to the Governor. In that case, a candidate nominee can be re-voted on for the recommendation placement or may be moved directly to the 3rd place recommendation.

Section 4: Vote of No Confidence or Censure of Elected Officials

Censoring and/or censuring or any other action(s) proposed to be taken against any elected official representing LD11 (outside of LD11 Members or leaders) shall come from LD11 members and/or leadership prior to any action by the CCRCC. The action must be initiated by LD11 Precinct Committeemen/Committeewomen (PC's). The action is to be initiated in the district first by a resolution which details the allegation(s) as well as the reasons for the allegation(s). Should allegation(s) arise, specifically against an LD11 Senator or Representative during a legislative session, the resolution may be held in the district until one day after the legislative session has concluded in order to prevent inaccurate information and eliminate multiple allegation resolutions from being presented to the district. Should allegations arise, specifically against an LD11 Senator or Representative after a legislative session, the resolution shall be presented immediately to the district to proceed according the bylaws and/or special rules outlined.

However, the process must follow due process requirements per the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which consist of the following: (1) immediate (w/i 24 hours) notice to the affected individual; (2) an immediate (w/i 72 hours) opportunity to be heard by the individual; and 3) an immediate (w/i 10 days of hearing from individual) impartial tribunal. <-- *see below

If the district acknowledges the use of the terms in the 14th amendment, I feel we should have to use all of the 14th amendment rules. But we can discuss this per RROO as well. 14th Amendment rules are:

- 1. An unbiased tribunal.
- 2. Notice of the proposed action and the grounds asserted for it.
- 3. Opportunity to present reasons why the proposed action should not be taken.
- 4. The right to present evidence, including the right to call witnesses.
- 5. The right to know opposing evidence.
- 6. The right to cross-examine adverse witnesses.
- 7. A decision based exclusively on the evidence presented.
- 8. Opportunity to be represented by counsel.
- 9. Requirement that the tribunal prepare a record of the evidence presented.
- 10. Requirement that the tribunal prepare written findings of fact and reasons for its decision.

Section 5: Procedure for Dismissal of a PC due to Attendance

Regarding district business, unless otherwise excused by the Chairman, PC's may miss NO more than six (6) meetings per elected term.

- a. Examples of excused absences include but are not limited to- family emergencies or state legislator obligations.
- b. Legal basis outlining this action can be found at Electionlawprogram.org

In general, once political parties are established, states may not regulate their internal structure, governance, or policymaking.¹⁹ However, if a state can posit a relationship between its regulations and "fair and honest" elections,²⁰ a state may usually: (1) enact laws that set voter eligibility requirements, including eligibility to participate in a party's primary election; (2) require that a political party's candidates be citizens; and (3) specify whether the party must use a primary election or nominating convention to select its general election candidates.²¹

Section 6: Recommendation and/or Endorsements of candidates.

Recommendation and Endorsement Committee: The Recommendation and Endorsement Committee shall be responsible for collecting information about candidates and potential candidates for public office. The R&E Committee may utilize questionnaires, interviews, forums, background checks, social media reviews and other means of investigation into the suitability of a candidate for office. The R&E Committee chairman shall present a report to the Legislative District 11 Committee during the Special Meeting to rank the candidates prior to an election. All LD 11 members are members of the R&E committee, which is chaired by the LD11 Vice Chair.
