No person may hold more than one voting position on the State Central Committee.

Section 2: The first meeting of the Republican State Central Committee shall take place immediately upon adjournment of the State Convention, at which time said committee may fill vacancies on the statewide ticket. The Committee shall thereafter be called to fill any vacancy on the statewide ticket which may occur before the General Election. Meetings of the Committee may be called by the State Chairman or, in the case of a vacancy in the Chairmanship, by the First Vice Chairman, and in the case of absence in the office of First Vice Chairman, by the Second Vice Chairman. Such call shall be issued at least thirty (30) days in advance of the date of the proposed semi-annual regular meeting and thirty (30) days in advance for special meetings and within fifteen (15) days for emergency meetings or as otherwise provided by Idaho Code and shall state the business to be transacted at the meeting and such other business as may properly come before it. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice annually.

Section 3: Upon written petition of fifteen (15) or more members of the Republican State Central Committee, representing not less than five (5) counties asking for a special meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, it shall be the duty of the State Chairman, within ten (10) days from receipt of said petition, to issue a call for a special meeting of the Republican State Central Committee.

Section 4: The voting membership of the Republican State Central Committee shall consist of all voting members of the State Executive Committee, County Chairmen, State Committeemen, State Committeewomen, State Youth Committeeperson, and Legislative District Chairmen. A duly elected Vice-Chairman of a Legislative District or County may vote in the absence of the Chairman.

A voting member's proxy from a non-represented county may only be honored if said proxy is carried by the Legislative District Chairman or Vice-Chairman. Should the Legislative District Chairman be unable to attend, the voting member's proxy from a non-represented county may be carried by the Region Chairman. A written proxy from an absent member to a voting member present from the same county, or as described above, shall be honored if filed prior to the commencement of any meeting with the State Central Committee Secretary. Section 2: The Rules of the Convention shall be the rules adopted by the previous Republican State Convention until such time as the State Convention adopts new rules, which shall become effective immediately. Such rules, however, shall not be inconsistent with the rules for Delegate selection as adopted by the State Central Committee.

ARTICLE V: THE IDAHO REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CAUCUS

Section 1: Unless the Idaho legislature acts before October 1, 2023, or the relevant RNC deadline, to restore the March Presidential Primary election and instruct the Idaho Secretary of State, according to Idaho Statutes, to conduct a Presidential Primary election on the first or second Tuesday of March in a Presidential Election year, the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus shall be held on the first Saturday in March of a Presidential election year. The Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus is not winner-take-all, unless a candidate receives more than 50% of the votes cast. If the Idaho Legislature chooses before October 1, 2023, or the relevant RNC deadline, to reinstate the March Presidential Primary, then the Idaho Republican Party rules governing that process revert to the rules as revised in January of 2023.

Section 2: For a candidate to be placed on the official ballot for the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus, he or she shall submit a $50,000.00 filing fee and declaration of candidacy to the Idaho Republican Party no later than 90 days prior to the caucus date. Candidates thus qualifying to be on the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus ballot shall be granted space for campaigning at each caucus location. Each candidate shall be given 5 minutes to address the voters at each caucus location. This may be in person, by a designated representative, or by prerecorded video. If the candidate holds at least one public campaign event in Idaho prior to the caucus that the candidate attends in-person between October 1 and caucus date of the Presidential election year, the Idaho Republican Party will refund one-half of the filing fee. All other filing fees are non-refundable regardless of the candidate's actual participation in the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus or whether the candidate withdraws from contention prior to the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus. If only a single candidate submits the filing fee and declaration before the filing date, then that candidate shall be declared the winner at that time, awarded all delegates to the National Convention, and no Presidential Caucus shall be held. If no candidate submits the filing fee and declaration before the filing date, then all delegates shall be uncommitted delegates and no Presidential Caucus shall be held.

Section 3: At least half of the total amount of filing fees collected from Section 2 above will be distributed among the forty-four county central committees to offset the costs of conducting the county caucuses. The amount of filing fees retained by the Idaho GOP Headquarters will be used to offset caucus costs and other costs at the state party level. The filing fees collected from Section 2 above will be distributed as follows:

1. One-half of the total amount of filing fees collected from Section 2 above will be distributed to the forty-four county central committees to offset the costs of conducting the county caucuses. Distribution will be proportional based on the number of Republican voters in each county as shown on the voter registration roll of the Idaho Secretary of State as of January 1 of the Presidential Election year. These amounts shall be retained by the county central committees even if their cost of administering the caucus in their county is less than that amount.
2. One- half of the total amount of filing fees collected, after Idaho GOP Headquarters' expenses from Section 2 above will be retained by the Idaho GOP Headquarters. Any county central committee that incurs costs in excess of the amount distributed as described above may present a documented accounting of its total costs to the Idaho GOP Headquarters no later than 21 days following the Caucus. If the amount of additional expenses presented by counties is less than the remaining amount of filing fees, the State Chairman shall direct that each county be reimbursed from those fees, with the remainder retained by the Idaho Republican Party. If expenses exceed the remaining filing fees, the State Chairman shall determine the number of registered Republican voters in counties submitting claims for excess expenses and shall calculate the percentage of those voters registered in each county submitting a claim. The State Chairman shall be authorized to reimburse each schedule of county expenses up to the proportional amount calculated. This process shall be repeated until all filing fees are distributed. Any funds left over after all county expenses are paid will remain with the Idaho Republican Party.

Section 4: The Idaho GOP Chairman shall send official notice of the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus and a Caucus Plan to all county and legislative district chairmen no later than one week after the Caucus Plan is approved by the RNC. The Caucus Plan shall contain tasks with deadlines for the caucus. The Idaho GOP shall notify every eligible caucus participant via post card of the time and place of their precinct's caucus. Notice shall be mailed no later than 14 days before the caucus. A general notice shall also be posted on the IDGOP website and sent as a press release or legal notice to media outlets statewide within 10 days of the caucus.

Section 5: The Caucus will be conducted simultaneously state wide at multiple locations. Each precinct will have an assigned caucus location. Some caucus locations may be shared by multiple precincts. Each caucus location will require a Caucus Captain. Each Legislative District or County will require a Caucus Coordinator who will ensure that each precinct has an assigned caucus location.

The county chairman has the authority to enforce these rules and resolve issues and the overall responsibility of conducting a successful caucus.

Section 6: Caucus Captain. The Precinct Committeeman will be the default Caucus Captain of that precinct. If the precinct is empty or the PC is unable or unwilling to serve, then a qualified elector from that precinct, who is affiliated with the Republican Party, may be nominated by any PC on the county's central committee and ratified by majority vote of the central committee. The county chairman may specify the method of voting for the Caucus Captain except if any member of the committee requests a secret ballot then a secret paper ballot will be used.

Caucus Captain Duties and Responsibilities shall include:

If the legislative district contains multiple counties then the county chairman will serve as the Caucus Coordinator for the precincts within the county.

The Caucus Coordinator will work directly with the Caucus Captains to ensure every precinct has an assigned caucus location. Should two or more Caucus Captains share a caucus location, the Caucus Coordinator shall determine by vote or coin toss who will be the Caucus Captain and who will be the Vice-Captain. The Caucus Coordinator shall register themselves, the caucus locations, precincts served and Caucus Captains with the state party and shall cooperate with Caucus Captains to timely register and report tabulated results to the state party headquarters. The Caucus Coordinator shall register the caucus locations with the state party no later than January 1 on the year of the caucus.

The State Executive Committee may appoint representatives to oversee any aspect of any county or legislative district's caucus process.

Section 8: All registered electors that have affiliated with the Republicans Party in the county on record as of January 1 of a Presidential election year, as well as any voters who turn 18 between January 1 and the date of the Presidential Caucus and who sign an affidavit declaring that they have registered to vote and affiliate with the Republican Party within that period and are therefore eligible to vote in Idaho elections shall be eligible to participate. The Idaho GOP Headquarters shall obtain this January 1st list from the Secretary of State, sort it by precinct, and have each precinct's voter list printed as a Poll Book. The Idaho GOP Headquarters shall deliver to each caucus location a standard set of materials to conduct the caucus. These shall include instructions, ballots, an agenda, a script, checklists, task lists, hand stamps, typical site layouts and other information needed to conduct the caucus. The caucuses shall be generally uniform but with enough flexibility to accommodate the needs of the various precincts.

Section 9: In order to vote, all caucus voters must show a form of photo identification acceptable for Idaho elections under Section 34-1113, Idaho Code, and sign next to their name in the corresponding Poll Book. Voters who turned 18 years old between January 1 and the date of the Presidential Caucus shall sign an affidavit declaring that they have registered to vote within that precinct, and affiliated with the Republican Party within that period and enter their name and registered address in the respective Poll Book. The Caucus Captain shall be the sole judge of voter qualification. Only eligible voters and their minor children shall be admitted to the caucus. No other guests will be permitted.

Section 10: Caucus Captain will call the Caucus to order. Opening ceremonies, including an invocation, the Pledge of Allegiance and, optionally, the national anthem, shall be performed. After opening ceremonies, the procedures to be followed as distributed by the Idaho Republican Party will be reviewed by the Caucus Captain. The Caucus Captain shall then nominate three members of the caucus to the Tabulation Committee. The Caucus Captain shall call for a voice vote to approve the Tabulation Committee appointments. In the event the vote fails, three caucus members shall be recognized to each nominate one alternative name, each of which shall be seconded and a voice vote shall be taken on those names. Each candidate on the ballot or their campaign specified designee will be given five minutes to offer remarks or play a video to the assembly.

Section 11: Following all speeches by candidates or their representatives or video presentations, voters shall proceed to the voting area. They shall receive their ballot, move to a ballot marking area, and then deposit their marked ballot into a ballot box. Caucus votes are secret votes, and county central committee members must make all reasonable efforts to ensure each voter's ballot remains secret. Any eligible voter who arrived after the start of the caucus, or could not participate due to building occupancy limits, shall be allowed to cast their ballot after the caucus participants have vacated the location after casting their ballots. All balloting will cease at the scheduled time.

Section 12: After all ballots have been voted, ballots shall be counted at the caucus site by the Tabulation Committee. Each candidate or their designee may observe the tabulating process. The ballots will first be separated into stacks by candidate and then each stack shall be counted twice. If the counts do not match then the stack shall be counted again until an identical count is achieved in two consecutive counts. The Caucus Captain and each member of the Tabulation Committee shall certify the count as correct by filling out and signing two copies of the Tabulation Certificate provided by the Idaho Republican Party.

Section 13: After the vote count is certified by the Caucus Captain and all members of the Tabulation committee, the Caucus Captain shall register the final results with party headquarters using the method prescribed by the State Chairman. Then the ballots and one copy of the Tabulation Certificate shall be placed in an envelope or box, sealed and delivered by hand, via certified mail, or by private delivery service to the Idaho Republican Party state headquarters. The second copy of the Tabulation Certificate will be timely delivered or transmitted to the Caucus Coordinator who will register the results with party headquarters using the method prescribed by the State Chairman. The Caucus Coordinator will then deliver the second copy of the Tabulation

Certificate by hand, via certified mail, or by private delivery service to the Idaho Republican Party state headquarters.

Section 14: Once all county results have been registered by all Caucus Captains and Caucus Coordinators, and totaled, the Idaho GOP Chairman will announce the vote count and declare the preliminary winner(s) of the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus.

Section 15: Upon receiving all Tabulation Certificates and ballots, the Idaho GOP Chairman will appoint a committee of at least three members to verify the total of all votes cast for each candidate match within 0.5% or ½ of the margin of victory, whichever is smaller. After the verification of all voting totals, the Idaho GOP Chairman will formally declare the official Caucus winner(s) and announce the number of delegates awarded to the winner(s) according to subsection (a) below.

- a) If a candidate wins more than 50% of the total votes cast in the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus, that candidate is awarded all of the Idaho delegates to the Republican National Convention for nominating the GOP candidate for President. If no candidate wins more than 50% of the total votes cast in the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus, then candidates are awarded delegates proportionately to the votes received by each candidate receiving at least 15% of the votes cast in the Caucus statewide (rounded to the nearest whole delegate, provided that any remainder delegate goes to the winning candidate). Any candidate that receives less than 15% of the total votes receives no delegates.

Section 16: If a county or legislative district fails or refuses to participate in a caucus or fails to register a caucus location by the deadline of January 1 of the year of the caucus, the state party chair shall be notified so the state may organize the county's caucus. In such an event, the state shall retain all caucus funds.

These delegates will be selected by the Nominations Committee of the Idaho State Republican Party. The Nominations Committee shall also produce a list of Guests to the convention. The Delegate, Alternate and Guest lists shall be confirmed at a special meeting of the Executive Committee, The Idaho GOP Chairman shall serve as Chairman of the Delegation unless the delegation selects a chairman from among its members by majority vote.
